Dear Irene:-

Received your lovely card some time ago but did not have your address until a few days ago. I had to write to Hamilton for it. Many thanks for the card; I thought the verse was quite cute.

How do you like your new job? It will be a change to housework and better money too I suppose. You will have more time to yourself although I guess you have to work pretty hard in those ammunition factories now. Joe was saying he thought they would have to work on Sundays before long. That is almost too much of course when you get paid by the hour an extra day will make quite a difference in the pay envelope.

What part of the city are you in Irene? I can't just remember now where Davisville Avenue is.

How is Kay? Is she still nursing in the same place? It is nice for you both to be together in the city. You will be able to see each other quite often.

To-day is a grand day for this time of year but we have been getting rain almost every second day this last couple of weeks.

Betty got started to school but I have had her home the last couple of
